APOLLO International Youth Theatre Festival
8th edition
08.09.2022 - 12.09.2022
Alba Iulia, Romania

Rules of the festival

"In the Greek mythology, the god Apollo is the patron of the arts, healing and prophecy. We decided to give the name of the ancient god Apollo to our festival – we believe that the art can help us discover subtle meanings of reality, that art heals and may be a source of revelations under the mysterious meeting of the artist and the public. We wish that this festival become a permanent invitation to expression and discovery for all those who are young at hearts. Apollo is not just a festival, is an exploration of the human spirit, a celebration of its creativity and passion."

Considerations:

APOLLO festival is organized by Skepsis Group Association on a social partnership, with the support of local authorities and institutions, media partners and local sponsors. The main goal is to promote Alba Iulia as a citadel of arts, as a landmark in the international youth cultural events.

APOLLO Festival is an invitation for young theatre groups (age range of the group: 18 to 39) to come together, learn and perform in Alba Iulia, Romania.

During the festival's days, different performances will be presented for the public – as the invited groups come from different schools and orientations in their theatre vision, having different backgrounds. Workshops conducted by a professional and discussions are to be held also, so that participants will have the chance to improve their abilities, to learn new ideas of development and to get a useful feedback - as APOLLO encourages intercultural dialogue.

Each year APOLLO proposes an idea, a concept that represents a symbolic theme of the event. The festival it is not a competition, it's main goal being to offer to the participant groups the chance to present their work and to build bridges, to develop collaboration relationships and to share experiences by exploring together in the artistically spirit of opening and understanding.

APOLLO is not a competition - there are no big prizes, no rewards in money, and no special hierarchy distinctions. Every group present will receive the public's appreciation, participation diplomas and a personalized trophy – original works of art signed by Stefan Balog (Artist).

- APOLLO: General Rules

The organizing committee has concluded to the following guide lines for the festival:
