AITA/IATA is looking for proposals for our online International Children's and Youth Theatre Conference which will take place online across the globe on 5th of November 2022.

“Cur tain up! The kids ar e back!”

Our Open Call is to grab your suggestions for possible speakers and influencers to participate in the Conference.

Do you have something to say about the future of Children's and Youth Theatre, which you want to share with the rest of the amateur theatre world? Or do you know someone who does?

Our conference will look at:

Children's and Youth Theatre post-COVID

- What have we learnt?
- What needs to be done next?
- Giving the Kids a Voice...
- And, what's new?

Your proposals for speakers and related topics must be submitted before the 1st of August 2022.

If you have interesting ideas or suggestions for dynamic speakers, please send an e-mail to: secretariat@aitaiata.net or comment on our social media profiles.

We will take your suggestions in to consideration in finalising the programme. The conference will offer sessions in English, French and Spanish, so contributors from all three languages are welcomed.

Thank you!
