FACTSHEET ON CAMPAGNA

The participants to the Festival “Il Gerione” can combine the experience of the educational theater with a fascinating trip, because Campagna is a place of strong artistic-cultural attraction.

Inhabited since Prehistoric times, Roman municipality in the days of Silla, marked by a strong catholic identity during Middle Age, enhanced during Renaissance, Campagna was feudal capital of Italy under the Princes of Monaco.

The abundance of water served as the driving force of a wild range of artisanal and industrial activities.

The historic center, in the valley of the rivers Atri and Tenza, between the mountains Picentini, is full of historical buildings: the ruins of Gerione Castle (1100), our Festival is named after it, the Cathedral of Saint Mary of the Peace (1600), the Cemetery below it, the Monastery of S. Avigliano (where San Bernardino da Siena was hosted 1440), the Church of San Bartolomeo with the Convent of Dominicans (that hosted Giordano Bruno), now is the Museum Itinerary of the Peace and of the Memory – Center Study “Giovanni Palatucci”, dedicated to the Commissioner of Fiume, who died in the Concentration Camp of Dachau.

And also, the Church of SS. Salvatore, where it’s preserved the “Colonna degli Ossessi”, the Augustinian Convent, today’s headquarters of the Municipality, the several noble palaces.

Campagna also offers some natural-paths, because it’s a trait of WWF’s Oasis of Persano (river landscape), and Poveracchio (mountain site), with guided tours organized specifically for school groups.

The city hosts, during the year, many events that are making it a visitor center for many tourists. A unique event is “la Chiena”, it’s the voluntary flooding of the main course in Campagna, during the months of July and August, the main course becomes the river bed of the Tenza River in Campagna.

While “Fucanoli” and “Portoni Ghiottoni” merge together a culinary and cultural experience.

The city of Campagna received two gold medals for civil merit, for “ help guaranteed to Jewish (1940-1945)” and for “post-earthquake reconstruction work” , and a third one goes to mons. Giuseppe Maria Palatucci, for “his help to Jews, during that dark time”.

Campagna offers the possibility of hospitality at competitive costs and an advantageous geographical position for visiting the main tourist resorts of the area :

it is 35km from Paestum, famous for its Hellenic settlements, and from Buccino, old Volcei, famous for its Roman settlements, 40 km from Salerno, 45 from the Pertosa caves; 60 from the characteristic medieval village of Roscigno, 65 from Amalfi, 70 from Pompeii and its excavations, 80km from Padula and its imposing Certosa, 100 km from Naples, and 110 from Caserta and its palace.
