

AITA/IATA Festival Debrecen, 19 – 25 June 2023

useful information

Location

The AITA/IATA Festival will take place in the town of Debrecen, Hungary. Below at Annex A is a Google Map of Debrecen, which is located in the East of Hungary.

Transport

Debrecen is served by a local airport – Debrecen International Airport . It offers limited connections to other European airports and there are no flights to Budapest Airport. The conference organisers offer the following links for transport between Budapest Airport and Debrecen. The journey takes about 2 and a half hours as does the journey by road – depending on traffic.

The Hungary organisers offer the following information about traveling between Budapest Airport and in Debrecen and note that it is for delegates to book and pay for their travel expenses to Debrecen:

Festival venues

The festival organisers plan to use the Csokonai Forum Theatre in the centre of Debrecen for many of the performances. It is also possible that the nearby old Csokonai Theatre will be used along with the Ady Endre High School located behind it.

Regional meetings & open forum - 23 June

The Regional Meetings will take place during the morning of 23 June and the Open Forum, which will include a presentation by Edith Coen on the survey she has carried out, will be in rooms in the Csokonai Forum Theatre.

General Assembly – 24 June

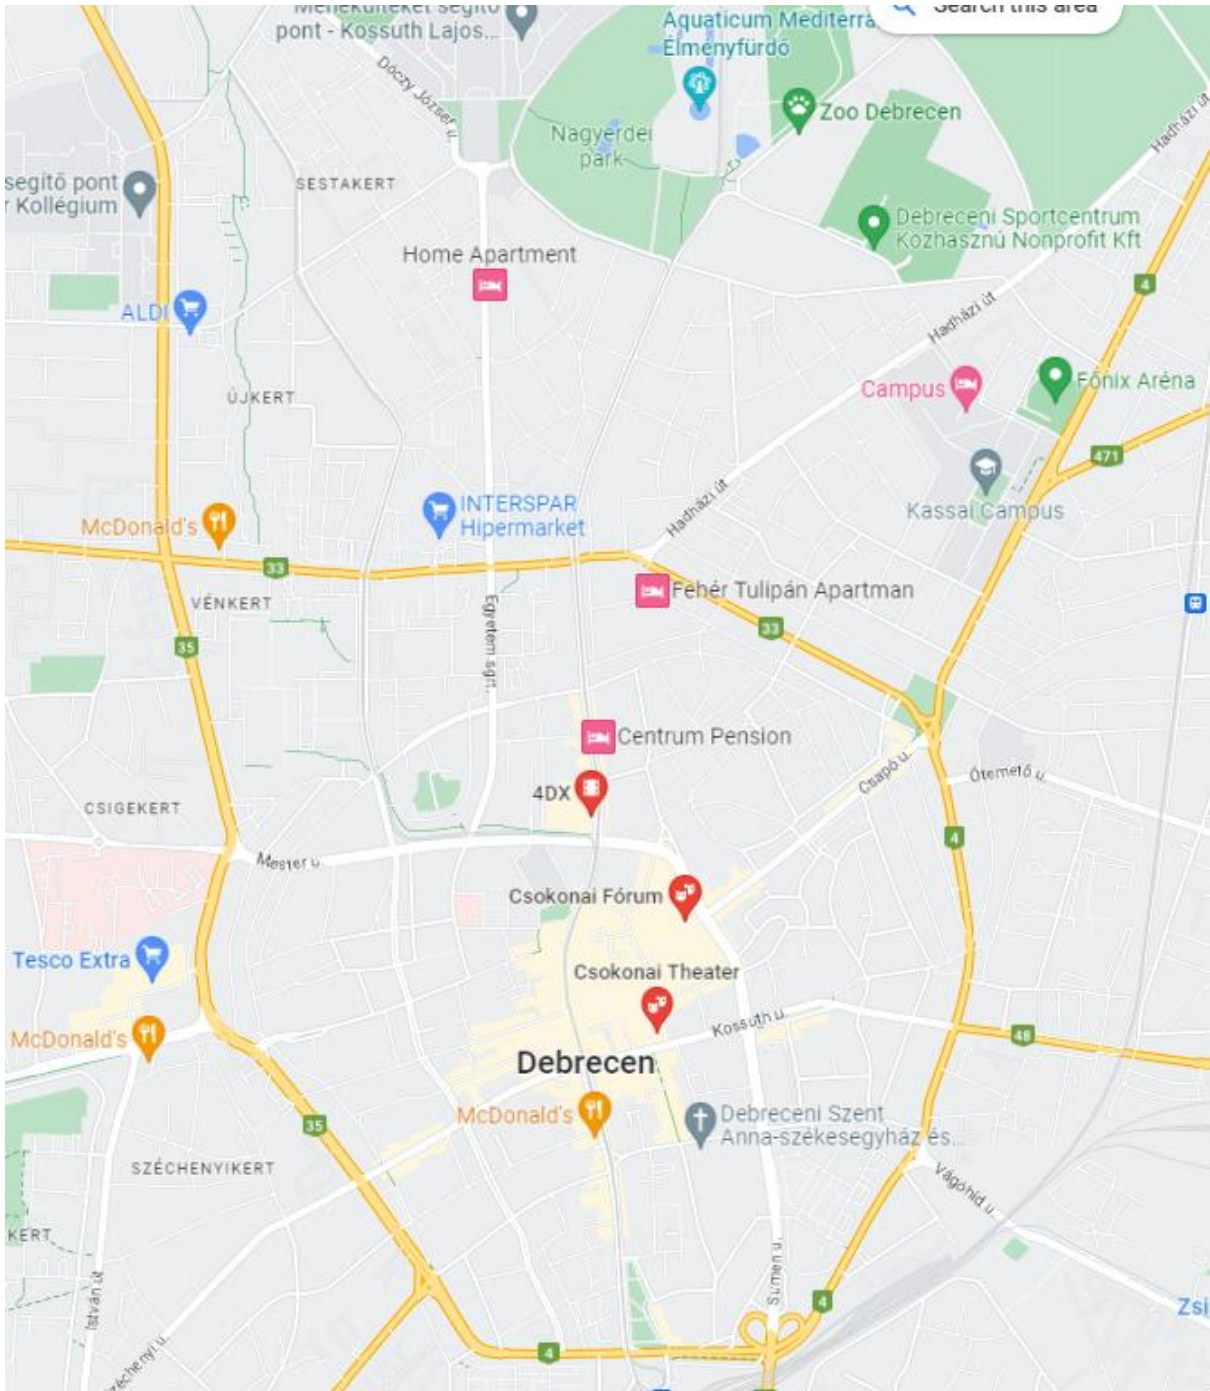

The General Assembly will be held in the University of Debrecen, located to the North Debrecen Centre. There are good public transport links between the University and the town and it is about a half an hour walk away. On Saturday, 24 June lunch and dinner will be provided by the organizers.

Accommodation

Below at Annex B is a list of accommodation provided by the Festival organisers. There are no 'special deals' to be offered and it is for delegates and festival attendees to book their own accommodation, meals and travel expenses to Debrecen.
